Notes from Ms. Sara:

“Mommy?” “Yes, Gracie?” “May the Fourth be with you. And Happy Earth Day.” “Gracie, we are just a little bit late celebrating those holidays. Earth Day was on April 22nd and May the Fourth (Star Wars Day) was...well...on May the Fourth.” “Yes, mommy, I know. But I want to celebrate them again especially since I am going to be an astronaut bunny next year in my new classroom. I will explore the galaxy, meet the aliens, feed the robots and take care of the planets.” Gracie the bunny is so excited for the adventures in the summertime and upcoming school year. We have had so much this year though and will miss each other quite dreadfully. However we do take intergalactic phone calls and expect to be invited to your new dwelling after all your adventures for milk and cookies-before the extremely cranky Ms. Sara robot eats them of course!! STAY TUNED FOR OUR REPORTS DURING THE SUMMER!!
